

Manager Onboarding Responsibilities

Purpose

This document outlines the responsibilities of managers when onboarding a new employee at Acme Corp. A smooth onboarding experience starts with manager preparation.

Before Start Date

2–4 Weeks Before

- ☐ Review and approve the job description and requirements.
- ☐ Prepare a 30-60-90 day plan for the new hire.
- ☐ Identify onboarding buddy or mentor.
- ☐ Reserve desk space and equipment (coordinate with HR and IT).
- ☐ Submit IT equipment request through the IT portal (at least 5 business days before start date).

1 Week Before

- ☐ Send welcome email to the new hire including:
 - Start date, time, and location
 - Manager and team introductions
 - First day agenda
 - Any pre-reading materials
- ☐ Notify the team of the new hire's start date.
- ☐ Schedule first week meetings (1:1s, team introductions, cross-functional meetings).
- ☐ Confirm IT equipment is ready with IT Support.

First Day

- ☐ Greet the new employee and give a office tour (or virtual welcome).
- ☐ Introduce to the team (in-person or via Slack).
- ☐ Review the 30-60-90 day plan and expectations.
- ☐ Ensure all IT equipment is set up and accounts are working.
- ☐ Schedule recurring 1:1 meetings (weekly for first 90 days).
- ☐ Assign first small task to build confidence.

First Week

- ☐ Review company values, mission, and culture.
- ☐ Provide access to relevant documents and systems.
- ☐ Introduce to key stakeholders and cross-functional partners.
- ☐ Review HR policies (time tracking, expenses, benefits enrollment).
- ☐ Set up training sessions for tools and processes.

First 30 Days

- ☐ Conduct first 30-day check-in (informal performance review).
- ☐ Review progress against 30-60-90 day plan.
- ☐ Solicit feedback from the new hire about their experience.
- ☐ Ensure all HR paperwork and benefits enrollment is complete.

First 60 Days

- ☐ Conduct 60-day check-in.
- ☐ Review accomplishments and areas for growth.
- ☐ Adjust 90-day plan as needed.
- ☐ Encourage the new hire to provide process improvement suggestions.

First 90 Days

- ☐ Conduct formal 90-day performance review.
- ☐ Discuss long-term career goals and development plan.
- ☐ Confirm the new hire has completed all onboarding requirements.
- ☐ Transition from onboarding to regular performance management cycle.

Ongoing Support

- Continue weekly 1:1 meetings.
- Provide regular feedback (both positive and constructive).
- Encourage participation in team events and company activities.
- Support professional development goals.

Resources

- HR Portal: hr.acmecorp.com
- IT Portal: it.acmecorp.com
- Onboarding Checklist: Available in the HR portal
- Employee Handbook: kb.acmecorp.com/handbook

Document Version 1.0 — Last Updated January 2026