1. Purpose

This document outlines the Human Resources policies that govern the employment relationship at Acme Corp. These policies are designed to ensure fair, consistent, and compliant treatment of all employees while supporting the company's business objectives.

2. Scope

These policies apply to all employees, contractors, and temporary staff of Acme Corp across all locations and business units.

3. Policy Statements

3.1 Equal Employment Opportunity

Acme Corp is an equal opportunity employer. All employment decisions — including hiring, promotion, compensation, training, and termination — are made without regard to race, color, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic.

3.2 Probation Period

New employees serve a probation period of two months. During this period, performance is evaluated, and either party may terminate employment with seven days' notice. Upon successful completion of probation, the employee is confirmed in their position and becomes eligible for all company benefits, including health insurance.

3.3 Working Hours

Standard working hours are 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with a one-hour lunch break. Flexible working arrangements may be approved by the department manager on a case-by-case basis.

3.4 Overtime

Overtime is compensated as follows: - Weekdays: 150% of hourly rate - Weekends: 200% of hourly rate - Public holidays: 300% of hourly rate

Overtime must be approved in advance by the direct manager.

3.5 Resignation and Notice Period

Employees are required to provide notice as follows: - Probation period: 7 days
- Confirmed employees: 30 days - Managerial positions: 45 days

3.6 Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain professional conduct, avoid conflicts of interest, protect company confidential information, and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.
