Insurance & Benefits

Q: When does my health insurance become effective?

A: Health insurance becomes effective on the first day of the month following successful completion of the two-month probation period. HR will process the enrollment within 5 working days after confirmation.

Q: Can I add my spouse to my health insurance?

A: Yes. Employees may enroll their spouse or legal partner in the Family health insurance plan. The additional premium is $80 per month. Required documents include the completed enrollment form and marriage certificate.

Q: Does the company provide life insurance?

A: Yes. All employees are covered by 24/7 accident insurance from their first working day. The coverage amount is 24 months' base salary for accidental death or permanent disability. Separate life insurance is available through the voluntary benefits program.

Q: What documents do I need for maternity benefits?

A: You need: (1) medical certificate confirming pregnancy, (2) birth certificate of child, (3) social insurance book, and (4) completed maternity benefit application form.

Leave

Q: How many annual leave days do I get?

A: Standard entitlement is 15 working days per year for employees with 0–5 years of service. This increases to 18 days after 5 years, 21 days after 10 years, and 24 days after 15 years.

Q: Can I carry unused leave to next year?

A: Yes, up to 5 working days may be carried forward. Any leave beyond this limit is forfeited unless approved by the department director for exceptional circumstances.

Q: What is the sick leave policy?

A: You receive 10 working days of paid sick leave per year. A medical certificate is required for absences of 3 or more consecutive days.

Q: How do I apply for unpaid leave?

A: Submit a request via the HR portal at least 10 working days in advance. Unpaid leave will affect salary and social insurance contributions.

Employment Policies

Q: How long is the probation period?

A: The standard probation period is two months. During probation, the salary is 85% of the position's starting salary. Either party may terminate with 7 days' notice.

Q: When does overtime apply?

A: Overtime is compensated at 150% of hourly rate on weekdays, 200% on weekends, and 300% on public holidays. All overtime must be approved in advance by your manager.

Q: What happens if I resign during probation?

A: Employees during probation may resign with 7 days' notice. No penalty applies. Accrued annual leave will be paid out.

Q: What are the standard working hours?

A: Standard working hours are 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with a one-hour lunch break.

Q: How do I report a complaint?

A: Complaints should first be raised with your direct manager. If unresolved, contact HR through the confidential hotline or hr@acmecorp.com. All complaints are investigated confidentially and without retaliation.
